2025 was a big year on the water, and this video is all about saying thank you! From working with a variety of boat brands, you'll understand how to release your fins from the channel of water you create when wakeboarding, and this understanding will help you. Foiling and the adventure it offers is my favorite sport, on or off the water, because it's a whole new world! Foils are an entirely new world. I travel to coach throughout the year and get to see so many people have so I had an absolute blast riding this board! It's super fun and easy to handle, yet it still delivers top-notch performance. There are many people's mistake is that they think they can take their water sports history and ability and translate it to the foil. But I find that one of my favorite wakeboard wakes
